

ARTE - ART--EDUCATION

ARTE Class Schedule (<https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/DEFAULT/DEFAULT/ARTE/>)

Courses

ARTE 101 Art, Design, and Society credit: 2 Hours. (<https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTE/101/>)

This course provides an introductory forum for beginning artists, designers, art historians, and art educators to think through the motivation(s) behind their/our creative work(s), research, and practices. Through topical examinations of contemporary art, craft, design, art history scholarship, art education scholarship, and interdisciplinary projects, developing artists will sift through pertinent issues around sustainability, ethics, ecologies, pedagogies, and civic engagement in order to inform our own burgeoning motivations and creative practices. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. Prerequisite: For Art +Design majors only.

ARTE 201 Foundations of Art Education credit: 3 Hours. (<https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTE/201/>)

Provides students with philosophical foundations for teaching art including in public schools. The primary emphasis will be on understanding recent and contemporary orientations through readings and practical activities. Particular emphasis will be placed on emerging trends in Art Education, especially the use of technology and the value of visual culture in student lives. It is envisaged that this course will provide the primary theoretical foundation for further practical and pre-service teaching courses in Art Education. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule.

ARTE 202 Facilitating the Art Experience credit: 3 Hours. (<https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTE/202/>)

In this course students will learn how individuals can facilitate the art experience for others. Through mutual exploration, research, and invention, students in this course will develop personal methods for teaching art and guiding others through experiences with art. There is a strong emphasis made in this course on how teaching practice(s) are related to art making practice(s) and therefore how teaching is a means through which meaning is made for the self and the public. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule.

ARTE 203 Everyday Arts Lab credit: 3 Hours. (<https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTE/203/>)

In this course, undergraduates learn to design and teach arts curriculum for youth (k-12) in settings including libraries, community centers, and schools. Students will explore their identities as artists, educators, and citizens, and learn how to assess impact of their projects and teaching. The course welcomes all students; no prior teaching or community-based education experience necessary. Non-art education majors should expect to spend 1 day / 3 hours per week at a community site during the after-school hours (e.g. 2:00-5:00) during the second half of the semester. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. Prerequisite: Art education majors should take ARTE 203 in conjunction with ARTE 204.

ARTE 204 Practicum Teaching Experience credit: 2 Hours. (<https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTE/204/>)

Provides undergraduate and graduates seeking certification in Art Education structured and supervised teaching experience in the Everyday Arts Lab program, held 2 afternoons per week during the second half of the semester. Professional development in lesson planning, instruction, and assessment will comprise the goals of the course. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. Prerequisite: ARTE 202. Must be taken in conjunction with ARTE 203.

ARTE 260 Museums in Action credit: 3 Hours. (<https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTE/260/>)

Considers how scholarly discourse in museum interpretation and educational program development are translated into practices that engage culturally diverse audiences. Readings, research, and professional activities provide students with opportunities for examination of museum interpretive practices, programming decisions, and public engagement activities, along with analysis of Krannert Art Museum's presence on the university campus, in the larger community, and on the World Wide Web. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule.

ARTE 299 Spec Topics in Art Education credit: 3 Hours. (<https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTE/299/>)

Topics and subject matter to be published in course listings. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. May be repeated to a maximum of 6 hours in a semester or, to a maximum of 12 total hours. Prerequisite: Sophomore standing in Art and Design.

ARTE 301 Curriculum, Assessment, and Art Education credit: 3 Hours. (<https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTE/301/>)

With a focus on problem-based learning, students will design lesson plans and curriculum around a complex human issue. Students will have hands-on experiences teaching in actual classrooms as these lessons will be taught in local schools. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. Prerequisite: ARTE 203 and ARTE 204; Art education majors only.

ARTE 302 Art-Centered Learning at the Secondary Level credit: 3 Hours. (<https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTE/302/>)

Focusing on contemporary art and integration with other disciplines, students will design lesson plans and curriculum for secondary students. Observations and teaching of lessons will occur in local junior/high school art rooms. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. Prerequisite: ARTE 203, ARTE 204, and ARTE 301; Art education majors only.

ARTE 350 Creative Dance for Children credit: 3 Hours. (<https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTE/350/>)

Prerequisite: ARTE 302; concurrent registration in EDPR 438 and EDPR 442, art education sections only.

ARTE 402 Artistic Development credit: 3 or 4 Hours. (<https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTE/402/>)

Historical and contemporary perspectives on children's artistic development, emphasizing relationships between general intellectual growth and the ability to create and respond to works of art. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. 3 undergraduate hours. 3 or 4 graduate hours. Prerequisite: Junior standing, and PSY 100 and Epsy 201.

ARTE 475 Art Exhibition Practices credit: 3 or 4 Hours. (<https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTE/475/>)

Explores issues pertaining to the preparation, installation and conservation of visual art. Students will learn how to organize, design, spot and install an exhibition; develop exhibition graphics; address conservation issues; handle works of art; and learn the business of art. Field trips and guest lectures by conservators, preparators, curators and exhibition designers will add further depth to the class. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. 3 undergraduate hours. 4 graduate hours. May be repeated in separate terms to a maximum of 6 undergraduate hours or 8 graduate hours. Prerequisite: Junior standing in Art and Design.

ARTE 480 Popular Visual Culture credit: 3 or 4 Hours. (<https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTE/480/>)

Focuses primarily on contemporary popular culture, but also draws upon fine art, folk art, and indigenous art from both the past and the present. Considers the often troubled relationships between the pleasures of visual culture and its ideologies. Students examine the literature of visual culture studies and develop research skills by examining a specific site of visual culture of their own choosing in terms of aesthetic pleasures and ideology including but not limited to sexism, class, ethnicity, religion, homophobia, and xenophobia. Theories of the body, consumerism, and globalization, among others will be considered. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. 3 undergraduate hours. 4 graduate hours. May be repeated in separate terms to a maximum of 6 undergraduate hours or 8 graduate hours.

ARTE 490 Senior Honors credit: 2 to 5 Hours. (<https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTE/490/>)

Independent guided research and study for honors. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. 2 to 5 undergraduate hours. No graduate credit. May be repeated to a maximum of 5 hours. Prerequisite: Senior standing in art education, a cumulative grade point average of 3.0; and consent of instructor, advisor, and associate director of the School.

ARTE 501 Issues in Art Education credit: 4 Hours. (<https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTE/501/>)

A range of topical issues are explored, which may vary from semester to semester, but may include children's artistic development, visual culture and curriculum, the philosophy of art, and cultural studies. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. 4 graduate hours. No professional credit. May be repeated in the same or separate terms, if topics vary, to a maximum of 16 hours.

ARTE 502 Curriculum Development in Art credit: 4 Hours. (<https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTE/502/>)

Analysis of curriculum organization in the visual arts; particular emphasis given to a range of curriculum positions in education and general research related to curriculum design. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. Prerequisite: Consent of instructor.

ARTE 503 Professional Teaching Seminar credit: 2 to 4 Hours. (<https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTE/503/>)

Advanced laboratory experiences in two-dimensional visual art techniques for elementary teachers, supervisors, and principals. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. May be repeated to a maximum of 8 hours. Prerequisite: Consent of instructor.

ARTE 505 Foundations of Art Education credit: 4 Hours. (<https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTE/505/>)

Designed for master's level students. Readings and discussions introduce the theories upon which classroom practices are based, and follow the historical sequence of three major movements within art education over the past 100 years: self-expression in art education, discipline-based art education, and the recent shift toward visual culture in art education. Primary emphasis will be on understanding recent and contemporary orientations. Designed to provide a basis for more in-depth study of curriculum and instruction, child development, multiculturalism, visual culture, and other areas germane to art education. Students compare and contrast the literature in terms of the theories offered, or assumed, of children, art, pedagogy, and society. In addition, students will be introduced to academic standards of writing.

ARTE 506 Theories of Art Education credit: 4 Hours. (<https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTE/506/>)
