ARTS - ART--STUDIO

ARTS Class Schedule (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/DEFAULT/DEFAULT/ARTS/)

Courses

ARTS 200  Introduction to Book Arts  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/200/)
Creative expression and communication through the production of a variety of unique and limited edition books. Students will learn the tools and techniques of binding books by hand while studying the physical and narrative properties of books. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. Prerequisite: Sophomore standing in Art and Design, in an Art History major, or in the Art History minor.

ARTS 201  Crafts Design  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/201/)
This course will provide students the opportunity to 1) explore craft practice as a medium of personal aesthetic expression 2) develop skills and a technical competency in working with a variety of craft materials to include glass, metal, paper, clay, enamel, wood 3) design objects of utility 4) experience creative and technical experimentation 5) establish an awareness of historical and contemporary movements in craft practice. This course includes field trips to the studios of practicing craft artist and visits to Krannert Art Museum and local art galleries. Patience, determination, fine motor skills, critical thinking, and problem solving skills will be developed and exercised in the course. This course satisfies the 3D requirement in the new Art + Design Foundations curriculum. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. Prerequisite: For art and design majors only.

ARTS 205  Introduction to Printmaking  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/205/)
Introduction to the materials and techniques of printmaking, including intaglio, relief, lithography, and screenprint. Over the course of several projects, students will develop a familiarity with print processes while learning about the unique history and conceptual concerns of print media. Composition and technique are emphasized, and projects that relate to work developed in other studio and design areas are encouraged. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule.

ARTS 210  Ceramics Sculpture I  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/210/)
Introduction to materials and techniques involved in the ceramic process. By achieving technical expertise using clay, students can begin to develop a personal artistic language employing clay as an art medium. Students will explore a variety of assignments employing hand-building techniques, as well as investigating various firing processes. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. Prerequisite: Sophomore standing or consent of instructor. For Art majors only.

ARTS 220  Introduction to Fashion  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/220/)
An overview of the many diverse areas of interest and employment available to someone with an interest in fashion. This course will focus on the development of an individual apparel design process. Other topics include basic garment construction concepts, properties of textiles, fashion illustration, 20th century dress history, manufacturing, trend forecasting, merchandising, and social psychology of dress. This course satisfies the General Education Criteria for: Humanities - Lit Arts

ARTS 221  Fashion Illustration  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/221/)
This course covers fundamental techniques specific to fashion design using apparel industry best practices. Students will be introduced to hand and computer techniques to create fashion illustrations, technical flats, and fabric renderings. Reflective of the fashion industry, students will be instructed in becoming visual communicators through the composition of concept boards and collection plates. Students will learn the basics of apparel collection design creating several two-dimensional representations of mini-collections with their personal expression. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. A student registered in one or more Art & Design course(s) exhibiting this message, will be assessed a $95 facility use fee once each term. Prerequisite: For Art and Design Majors Only.

ARTS 223  Experimental Fashion  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/223/)
Focuses on the exploration of fabric as a medium for designers, artists, and performers within the context of the discipline of fashion. Students will be introduced to basic strategies for bringing two-dimensional materials into three-dimensional form through draping, pattern making, and machine and hand sewing techniques. The elements and principles of design as they apply to fabric and the body will be the foundation for experimental works that delve into fashion’s role in understanding, forming, and presenting identity. Field trips may include visits to the Krannert Art Museum and the Fashion Study Collection, Columbia College, Chicago. Three dimensional work from this class will be juried for acceptance into the Re-Fashioned fashion show. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. Prerequisite: Restricted to Art and Design Majors, Minors or with instructor’s approval.

ARTS 230  Jewelry/Metals I  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/230/)
Design and execution of jewelry and related objects through fabrication, focusing on surface embellishment, joining, and finishing processes; exploring metal as a medium of personal aesthetic expression. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. Prerequisite: Sophomore standing or consent of instructor. For Art majors only.

ARTS 231  Jewelry/Metals II  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/231/)
Additional experience and experimentation in designing and executing jewelry and related objects through fabrication, refinement of surface embellishment, joining, and finishing skills; further exploration of metal as a medium of personal aesthetic expression. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. Prerequisite: ARTS 230.

ARTS 241  Image Practice  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/241/)
Looks at the production and reception of images through a combination of historical, theoretical and practical perspectives. A variety of contexts from contemporary art, design and popular culture will be explored through research and visual projects. Special consideration will be given to current forms of reproduction, with students learning and utilizing common methods for rendering and realizing still images, including both print and screen-based output. This course satisfies the 4D requirement for the new Art and Design Foundations curriculum. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. Prerequisite: For art and design majors only.
ARTS 243  Time Arts I  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/243/)
Explores the potential of time-based media for creative expression and communications within the context of visual art and design. Classroom discussion will focus on historical and contemporary examples of time arts, written materials, and student work. Hands-on projects will introduce tools, issues and strategies particular to creating and analyzing work based in time. This course satisfies the 4D requirement in the new Art and Design Foundations curriculum. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. Prerequisite: For art and design majors only.

ARTS 244  Interaction I  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/244/)
Introduction to the conceptualization and construction of interactive experience for art and design. Interaction will be examined as technical, structural, social, and historical. Work will include practice, research, discussion, and lecture. This course satisfies the 4D requirement in the new Art and Design Foundations curriculum. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. Prerequisite: For art and design majors only.

ARTS 250  Life Drawing  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/250/)
Representational and interpretive drawing from life explored through close observation and structural analysis of the human figure and other subject matter. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. Prerequisite: For art and design majors only.

ARTS 251  Beginning Painting  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/251/)
This studio course familiarizes students with basic oil painting materials, techniques, and concepts. Topics to be addressed include composition, color theory, historical painting techniques, illusionistic space, and paint handling and application. Exploration and discussion of the ways in which paintings make meaning. This course satisfies the 2D requirement in the Art Foundations curriculum. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. Prerequisite: For art and design majors only.

ARTS 252  Making and Meaning  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/252/)
Introduction to the relationship of material, method, and process to meaning in art practice. Through research, critique, and application of concepts in material studio processes, students will explore a diverse range of methods of achieving meaning in an artwork. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. Prerequisite: For art and design majors only.

ARTS 254  Basic Photography  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/254/)
Investigates basic image making and meaning. Student works with digital camera, exposure meter and learns digital printing. Student must furnish camera. This course satisfies the 2D requirement for Art & Design majors, and is required for both the BA and BFA Studio Art concentrations in Photography. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. Credit is not given for ARTS 264 if credit for ARTD 260 has been earned. Prerequisite: Freshman standing in Art and Design; or Art and Design Minor; or consent of instructor. For Art and Design majors or minors.

ARTS 263  Making and Design  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/263/)
In this intermediate studio photography course students explore fundamental facets of image-making with thematic focus on the notion of the Analogy, and intersections of analogue, digital, and virtual processes of visual communication. This includes work with 35mm and medium format analog film, darkroom printing, color film scanning, advanced inkjet printing, photo sculpture, and cyanotype processes. An integral aspect of this class will be exercising a critically engaged vocabulary to describe how photographs make meaning, and the development of a personal aesthetic. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. Credit is not given toward graduation for ARTS 265 if credit for ARTD 261 has been earned. Prerequisite: ARTS 264. Restricted to Art majors only.

ARTS 265  Photography II  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/265/)
Explores the potential of color printing and output in digital media as a form for creative expression. Student must furnish camera. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. Credit is not given for ARTS 267 if credit for ARTD 263 has been earned. Prerequisite: ARTS 264.

ARTS 266  View Camera  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/266/)
Includes work with camera movements, exposure, black and white film development and basic wet process silver printing as tools of creative expression. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. May be repeated in separate terms to a maximum of 6 hours. Prerequisite: ARTS 265 or consent of instructor.

ARTS 267  Digital Photographic Output  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/267/)
Introduction to basic concepts, processes, and materials in sculpture, with an emphasis on the relationship among these three aspects of producing works of art. Materials including wood, plaster, and clay will be used additively to fabricate, model and cast forms. Subtractive methods utilizing carving, and the making of meaning via materials, methods and context are also discussed. This course satisfies the 3D requirement in the Art Foundations curriculum. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. Prerequisite: For art and design majors only.

ARTS 270  Beginning Sculpture  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/270/)
This studio course familiarizes students with basic sculpture materials, techniques, and concepts. Topics to be addressed include the creation of a concept, process and material in their work. Emphasis will stress the new Art and Design Foundations curriculum. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. Prerequisite: ARTD 261 has been earned. Prerequisite: ARTS 264. Restricted to Art majors only.

ARTS 280  Ceramics Sculpture II  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/280/)
Investigates basic image making and meaning. Student works with digital camera, exposure meter and learns digital printing. Student must furnish camera. This course satisfies the 2D requirement for Art & Design majors, and is required for both the BA and BFA Studio Art concentrations in Photography. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. Credit is not given for ARTS 264 if credit for ARTD 260 has been earned. Prerequisite: Freshman standing in Art and Design; or Art and Design Minor; or consent of instructor. For Art and Design majors or minors.

ARTS 301  Ceramics Sculpture III  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/301/)
Students will develop more sophisticated techniques and processes necessary to develop their personal voice and take more responsibility for concept, process and material in their work. Emphasis will stress processes related to creating ceramic sculpture such as hand construction techniques, kiln firing, clay and glaze experimentation. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. Prerequisite: ARTS 210.
ARTS 320  Fashion and Textiles Design  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/320/)
Introduces students to fashion textile design through the investigation of traditional and innovative sustainable techniques used in the fashion industry. Students will be introduced to textile properties, 2D print design, and 3D textiles experimentation, learning basic weaving techniques and innovative processes. Students will design original textiles to be utilized in the development of mini fashion collections and they will develop and construct one piece from the collections into a 3D ensemble. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. A student registered in one or more Art & Design course(s) exhibiting this message, will be assessed a $95 facility use fee once each term. Prerequisite: For Art and Design Majors, Art and Design Minors, or by instructor’s approval.

ARTS 321  Sustainable Fashion Development and Branding  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/321/)
Provides the tools to develop a sustainable fashion collection, from concept to consumer. Students will learn the fundamental aspects of the cycle, from the first spark in the creative process to consumer and market analysis, emphasizing the development of sustainable fashion lines, branding and communication. Investigations of new business models and best practices for apparel production will guide class discussions. Students will be responsible for launching their own fictional sustainable labels and collections. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. A student registered in one or more Art & Design course(s) exhibiting this message, will be assessed a $95 facility use fee once each term. Prerequisite: For Art and Design Majors, Art and Design Minors, or by instructor approval.

ARTS 340  The Art of 3D Imaging  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/340/)
Investigation of the three-dimensional modeling capabilities of 3D Studio Max software through a series of original tutorials, class projects and individual problems. The emphasis will be on quality of form and content rather than technical expertise. The end result will culminate in the understanding and production of limited edition digital prints. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. This course may not be repeated for credit.

ARTS 350  Intermediate Studio I  credit: 4 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/350/)
Combined painting, sculpture and new media studio. Self-directed arts practice. Individual and group critique; includes seminars, discussions, demonstrations, visiting artists and critics, and field trips. Interaction and collaboration among students in painting, sculpture and new media. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. Prerequisite: ARTS 254 or ARTS 281 or ARTS 240. For Art majors only.

ARTS 351  Intermediate Studio II  credit: 4 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/351/)
Continuation of ARTS 350. Combined painting, sculpture and new media. Self-directed arts practice. Individual and group critique; includes seminars, discussions, demonstrations, visiting artists and critics, and field trips. Interaction and collaboration among students in painting, sculpture and new media. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. Prerequisite: ARTS 350. For Art majors only.

ARTS 354  Intermediate Painting  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/354/)
This studio course introduces students to diverse topics and strategies in historical and contemporary painting, including impasto, collage, and various kinds of abstraction. Students will consider contemporary definitions of painting and explore alternative materials including industrial and craft painting materials, found materials, and newly-available painting media. Students will discuss recent and contemporary conceptual issues in painting. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. May be repeated to a maximum of 6 hours in separate terms. Prerequisite: ARTS 251.

ARTS 364  Photography III  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/364/)
Explores creative expression through various media but primarily photography. Students select format based on prior experience; group critiques held weekly; initial opportunity to experiment in personally selected directions and assignments which will be refined and amplified in ARTD 460. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. Credit is not given for ARTS 364 if credit for ARTD 360 has been earned. Prerequisite: Junior standing in Photography concentration or consent of instructor.

ARTS 365  Photography Workshop  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/365/)
Advanced course on a special topic: see Class Schedule section note for description. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. May be repeated to a maximum of 12 hours. Prerequisite: Junior or senior standing in art and design; or consent of instructor based upon announced criterion that varies with topic.

ARTS 367  RAW Photography  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/367/)
An advanced Photoshop course for the student interested in a digital approach to Fine Art Photography. Students will explore the use and conversion methods of the RAW digital process, and learn how to extract, control, and enhance digital image files. Over the course of the semester, an effective and personal workflow within the Photoshop environment will be developed. Access to a digital SLR camera is required. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. May be repeated in separate terms to a maximum of 6 hours. Prerequisite: Junior or above standing in Art and Design, or consent of the instructor. ARTS 264 and ARTS 265 are suggested.

ARTS 381  Intermediate Sculpture  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/381/)
This studio course introduces students to diverse topics and strategies in historical and contemporary sculpture, including welding and metal work, working with fibers, and various kinds of additive processes. Students will consider contemporary definitions of sculpture and explore alternative materials including industrial and craft materials, found materials, and newly-available digital media and processes. Students will discuss recent and contemporary conceptual issues in sculpture, and respond to a variety of fabrication assignments. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. May be repeated to a maximum of 6 hours in separate terms. Prerequisite: ARTS 280.

ARTS 391  Independent Study  credit: 1 to 4 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/391/)
Directed independent creative activity or research. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. May be repeated to a maximum of 6 hours. Prerequisite: Junior standing in Art and Design; and consent of instructor, advisor, and associate director of the School. For Art majors only.
ARTS 244 Interaction II  credit: 3 or 4 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/444/)
Further exploration of interaction, with an increased emphasis on realization and application of designed interactive experience, and depth of exposure to particular technical platforms. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. 3 undergraduate hours. 4 graduate hours. May be repeated to a maximum of 6 undergraduate or 8 graduate hours. Prerequisite: ARTS 243 or consent of instructor.

ARTS 400 Advanced Book Arts  credit: 3 or 4 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/400/)
Advanced study of the history and techniques of hand bookbinding. Variations on binding structures and emphasis on creative expression through mixed media, collage, painting, photography, and writing. Field trips to book collections. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. 3 undergraduate hours. 4 graduate hours. Prerequisite: ARTS 200, and junior standing in Art and Design or consent of instructor.

ARTS 405 Special Topics in Printmaking  credit: 3 or 4 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/405/)
Advanced exploration of specific printmaking processes. Students will develop skills through a progression of projects, while increasing their awareness of conceptual concerns unique to printmaking through discussion and field trips. Projects that relate to work developed in other studio and design areas are encouraged. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. 3 undergraduate hours. 4 graduate hours. May be repeated to a maximum of 12 undergraduate hours or 12 graduate hours if topics vary. A student registered in one or more Art & Design course(s) exhibiting this message, will be assessed a $95 facility use fee once each term. Prerequisite: ARTS 205. Junior standing or higher in Art & Design required.

ARTS 410 Advanced Ceramics Sculpture  credit: 3 or 4 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/410/)
Students will develop more sophisticated techniques and processes necessary to develop their personal ideas. Emphasis will be placed on processes related to creating ceramic sculpture such as kiln firing, clay and glaze experimentation. At this level, the student begins to take more responsibility for concept, process and material in their work. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. 3 undergraduate hours. 4 graduate hours. May be repeated up to 15 undergraduate hours or 20 graduate hours. Prerequisite: ARTS 210.

ARTS 420 Making Fashion: Apparel Design in Context  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/420/)
Focuses on developing a personal apparel design process from inspiration to construction through the lens of fashion history and within the context of the current cultural zeitgeist. Concepts covered include: sewing and construction techniques, properties of textiles, fashion illustration, and 20th and 21st century fashion history. Field trips may include visits to the Krannert Art Museum and the Fashion Study Collection, Columbia College, Chicago. Student ensembles will be juried for acceptance into the end-of-semester Re-Fashioned fashion show. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. 3 undergraduate hours. No graduate credit. May be repeated to a maximum of 6 hours in separate semesters. Prerequisite: Restricted to Art and Design Majors, Art and Design Minors, or by instructor’s approval.

ARTS 443 Time Arts II  credit: 3 or 4 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/443/)
Provides semester-long, in-depth explorations of single time arts topics. Using the ideas and basic tools from Time Arts I, students will study the advanced concepts and techniques particular to individual time arts genres while producing their own work. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. 3 undergraduate hours. 4 graduate hours. May be repeated in separate terms to a maximum of 6 undergraduate or 8 graduate hours. Prerequisite: ARTS 243 or consent of instructor.

ARTS 444 Interaction I  credit: 3 or 4 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/444/)
Further exploration of interaction, with an increased emphasis on realization and application of designed interactive experience, and depth of exposure to particular technical platforms. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. 3 undergraduate hours. 4 graduate hours. May be repeated to a maximum of 6 undergraduate or 8 graduate hours. Prerequisite: ARTS 243 or consent of instructor.

ARTS 445 Special Topics in New Media  credit: 3 or 4 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/445/)
Course will explore one specialization within the field of New Media. Topics will rotate through each semester; possible subjects include Performance, Sound, Radio, Public Art, and Social Media. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. 3 undergraduate hours. 4 graduate hours. May be repeated in the same or separate semesters to a maximum of 12 undergraduate hours or 16 graduate hours. Prerequisite: Junior standing.

ARTS 448 BASA Capstone Project  credit: 4 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/448/)
Designed to provide instruction and support in identifying, articulating, researching, developing and refining the concepts underpinning the BASA candidate’s studio work. Students will develop professional practice skills and knowledge in the field of Studio Arts. Students will develop a portfolio, a professional website, a written statement and a curriculum vita. Candidates will be prepared for professional opportunities or further study in Studio Arts and related fields. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. 4 undergraduate hours. No graduate credit. May be repeated in separate terms up to 8 hours. Prerequisite: Any ARTS course at the 300 level or above. Restricted to students with Senior standing.

ARTS 449 Advanced Seminar in New Media  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/449/)
Students will explore current issues in New Media with the goal of understanding their own artwork in a disciplinary context. Through reading, writing, research and discussions, students will be exposed to significant work in their field. 3 undergraduate hours. No graduate credit. May be repeated to a maximum of 6 undergraduate hours. Prerequisite: Open to New Media majors or consent of instructor.
ARTS 450  Advanced Studio I  credit: 4 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/450/)
First of two capstone courses in studio arts practice, individualized study for painting, sculpture, and new media majors. Explores and develops conceptual and aesthetic interests, topics, and projects; expands and refines material knowledge and expertise; develops research strategies and methodologies. Includes individual and group critiques, dynamic interaction with faculty and peers. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. 4 undergraduate hours. No graduate credit. Prerequisite: ARTS 351 Intermediate Studio II. For Art majors only.

ARTS 451  Advanced Studio II  credit: 4 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/451/)
Continuation of ARTS 450. Second of two capstone courses in studio arts practice, providing individualized study for painting, sculpture, and new media majors. Explores and develops conceptual and aesthetic interests, topics, and projects; expands and refines material knowledge and expertise; develops research strategies and methodologies. Includes individual and group critiques, dynamic interaction with faculty and peers. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. 4 undergraduate hours. No graduate credit. Prerequisite: ARTS 450. For Art majors only.

ARTS 454  Advanced Drawing  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/454/)
An advanced studio course that considers a variety of activities defined traditionally, historically and contemporarily as drawing. Students will investigate the questions of what drawing is and how it communicates meaning. They will use and experiment with a wide variety of materials and concepts as they work on in-class projects and outside assignments, investigate the work of contemporary artists to see how the practice of drawing is being redefined, and consider the influence drawing has had on design and visual culture. Students will be encouraged to experiment, innovate, and develop new visual vocabularies. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. 3 undergraduate hours. 3 graduate hours. May be repeated to a maximum of 6 hours. Prerequisite: Two prior courses in drawing; junior standing.

ARTS 455  Advanced Painting  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/455/)
An advanced studio course focusing intensively on the practice of painting. Students will research contemporary painting and its recent history, discuss its relevance and place in contemporary art, and investigate and articulate their own conceptual motivations in using painting media. Topics will include the relationship of the history of painting to how its use generates meaning in a contemporary context. Students will engage in self-generated studio practice; this work will be the basis of group and individual discussion and critique. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. 3 undergraduate hours. No graduate credit. May be repeated to a maximum of 6 hours. Prerequisite: ARTS 354.

ARTS 456  Advanced Sculpture  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/456/)
Advanced studio course designed to integrate basic sculpture and other 3-D studio skills with advanced knowledge of contemporary sculptural practices and materials, along with an understanding of concepts and theories influencing contemporary sculptural art. Students will develop critical research and studio production methods that allow them to generate work relevant to current developments and discourse in the field. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. 3 undergraduate hours. No graduate credit. May be repeated to a maximum of 6 hours in separate terms. Prerequisite: For students with Junior and above standing.

ARTS 457  Art in Context  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/457/)
Focuses on the relationship between artworks and their historical, institutional, spatial, geographic, architectural or other contexts for the purpose of engaging in a critical analysis of artworks, as well as developing informed, intentional studio production. Students will encounter topics related to a critical and ethical understanding of context including site-specificity, phenomenology, public art, Situationism, relational aesthetics, and the production of space through social and political process such as building and mapping. The goal is to investigate and understand the dynamic relationship between art and its context. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. 3 undergraduate hours. No graduate credit. May be repeated to a maximum of 6 hours. Prerequisite: Junior standing.

ARTS 461  Advanced Photography  credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/461/)
Concentrated use of photographic processes for creative expression with emphasis on professionalism and the production of a photographic portfolio. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. 3 undergraduate hours. 3 graduate hours. May be repeated to a maximum of 6 undergraduate hours and 4 graduate hours. Prerequisite: Senior standing in Photography, or consent of instructor.

ARTS 499  Special Topics in Studio Art  credit: 1 to 4 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/499/)
Special topics in studio arts. Topics and subject matter to be published in course listings. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. 1 to 3 undergraduate hours. 1 to 4 graduate hours. May be repeated to a maximum of 9 undergraduate hours or 12 graduate hours if topics vary. Prerequisite: Restricted to students with Junior standing.

ARTS 591  Graduate Studio  credit: 1 to 8 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/591/)
Directed individual creative activity or research. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. 1 to 8 graduate hours. No professional credit. May be repeated if topics vary, in the same semester up to 10 hours; in separate semesters to a maximum of 20 hours. Prerequisite: Graduate standing. For Art majors only.

ARTS 593  Seminar: Methods Criticism  credit: 1 to 4 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/593/)
Prerequisite: Graduate standing in art.

ARTS 595  Graduate Laboratory  credit: 4 to 12 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/ARTS/595/)
Individually directed research and personal. MFA students in studio arts practice, providing individualized study for painting, sculpture, and new media majors. Explores and develops conceptual and aesthetic interests, topics, and projects; expands and refines material knowledge and expertise; develops research strategies and methodologies. Includes individual and group critiques, dynamic interaction with faculty and peers. Additional fees may apply. See Class Schedule. 4 to 12 graduate hours. No professional credit. May be repeated to a maximum of 48 hours, but no more than 12 hours in a single term. Prerequisite: Enrollment in the MFA program in Art & Design or consent of departmental graduate committee. For Art majors only.
