BUSINESS (BUS)

BUS Class Schedule (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/DEFAULT/DEFAULT/BUS)

Courses

BUS 101 Professional Responsibility and Business credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/BUS/101)
Introduces business students to professional responsibility. Develops the concept of professional responsibility within a personal and interpersonal context. Continues by expanding the concept to encompass the firm and explore the global corporate context. Introduces business majors and career paths and provides an understanding of ethical decision-making. Encourages the development of a professional identity and skills, preparing students to represent the College and the University with integrity and confidence in their careers. Prerequisite: First Semester Freshman, Intercollegiate and Off-Campus Transfer Students.

BUS 115 Freshman Business Honors Seminar credit: 2 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/BUS/115)
Introduction to business and an overview of the role of the Gies College of Business and the University of Illinois in providing opportunities for undergraduates to prepare to become business leaders. Introduction to the Gies College of Business Honors Program, a leadership program for approximately 40 incoming freshmen in the Gies College of Business. Students will begin to work as a team to use leadership in service to all undergraduates in the Gies College of Business. Credit is not given for BUS 120 and BUS 115. Prerequisite: First-year student in the Gies Business Honors program.

BUS 199 Undergraduate Open Seminar credit: 0 to 5 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/BUS/199)
Approved for both letter and S/U grading. May be repeated.

BUS 201 Business Dynamics credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/BUS/201)
Introduces College of Business sophomores to the primary functional areas of business and how each functional area relates to comprise a business system. Students will engage in a dynamic simulation to develop an understanding of the interdependencies between the functional areas. The course will also highlight and continue to develop the teamwork and leadership skills required of successful managers. Prerequisite: Sophomore standing; BUS 101.

BUS 215 Sophomore Business Honors Seminar credit: 1 Hour. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/BUS/215)
Required for all sophomores in the Gies College of Business Honors Program. The course structure is divided into four focused learning modules: Negotiations, Intercultural Communications, Disruption, and Project Management. Prerequisite: Second-year student in the Gies Business Honors program.

BUS 299 BUS Internship credit: 0 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/BUS/299)
Accommodates students who must be registered for a course at the University while completing an internship, either because the internship is unpaid and the company requires registration, or because of visa requirements. Only internships in the College of Business will be considered. Approved for S/U grading only.

BUS 301 Business in Action credit: 3 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/BUS/301)
Introduces students to the complexities of business by working on a real organizational problem with an actual client. Students will work with a client to identify, analyze, and present recommendations to solve an organizational problem. Requires students to apply problem-solving skills to uncertain situations as well as build and manage a professional team. Prerequisite: BUS 201-Business Dynamics.

BUS 302 Principles of Professional Responsibility credit: 1 Hour. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/BUS/302)
Examines in depth a number of the multi-dimensional attributes required to advance understanding of professional responsibility in the context of an ever-changing business environment, focusing on principles for addressing dilemmas that regularly arise in professional life in the work of business. Explores connections between academic integrity while in school and professional responsibility in later work life. Builds on BUS 101 and provides a breadth and depth of that body of knowledge that will enable highly successful students in BUS 302 to be considered for the role of section leaders in BUS 101. Aspiring section leaders in BUS 101 must have excelled in BUS to be considered for the position. May be repeated in separate terms to a maximum of 4 hours if there are significant curriculum changes to BUS 101. Prerequisite: BUS 101; by application and interview. Restricted to section leaders of BUS 101.

BUS 315 Junior Business Honors Seminar credit: 1 Hour. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/BUS/315)
Focuses on expanding students' knowledge about higher education and the academy through the depth and breadth of University of Illinois faculty expertise. Each week, an invited faculty member will give a brief presentation on their research or area of expertise and lead an interactive discussion session with the students. Prerequisite: Third-year students in the Gies Business Honors program.

BUS 399 Business Study Abroad credit: 0 to 18 Hours. (https://courses.illinois.edu/schedule/terms/BUS/399)
Upon prior written approval of the College of Business' Office of Undergraduate Affairs, a student may earn up to 18 credit hours per term undertaking a study and/or research project in international business at accredited foreign institutions or approved overseas programs. Final determination of appropriate credit will be made upon completion of the work done abroad. While absent from the Urbana-Champaign campus, the student must continue to pay all fees required by the University of Illinois to retain continuity of enrollment and to allow the time spent away from this campus to count toward residency. Approved for both letter and S/U grading. Maximum of 18 hours per term and 36 hours total. Prerequisite: One academic year (or one semester in the case of transfer students) in residence at UIUC, good academic standing, completion of at least thirty semester hours toward the bachelor's degree, and prior approval of course work by the College of Business' Office of Undergraduate Affairs. Some programs have additional requirements.

Information listed in this catalog is current as of 04/2020
BUS 401  Business in a Global Perspective  credit: 3 Hours.  Provides Gies College of Business seniors with an in-depth examination of the contemporary global business. Emphasis is placed on measuring and understanding the scale and rates-of-change of economic activities that affect and are affected by business. Accounting concepts are extended to countries, resources, and other dimensions of well-being. Technological and conceptual limitations will be critically examined. Students will be exposed to cutting-edge research that seeks to improve and deepen measurement of today's business environment. 3 undergraduate hours. No graduate credit. Credit is not be given for BADM 380 if taken concurrently or subsequently to BUS 401. Prerequisite: BUS 301-Business Dynamics.

BUS 415  Senior Business Honors Seminar  credit: 1 Hour.  A capstone leadership course for the Senior Business Honors class. It is meant to provide tangible leadership lessons through a variety of medium, including: (1) speeches and discussions by successful professionals in the business world and academia; (2) review and discussion amongst the class members on specifically-identified leadership topics; and (3) self-reflection on these topics and an assessment of how the student will plan to incorporate the learnings into their own leadership style. 1 undergraduate hour. No graduate credit. Prerequisite: Fourth-year student in the Gies Business Honors program.