Gies College of Business currently offers an online degree program leading to the Master of Business Administration (M.B.A.) The residential MBA and Professional MBA programs are no longer accepting applications. The MBA requires 72 hours of credit.

The Online MBA (iMBA) features a flexible program format. During each course, virtual study teams are created that are designed to draw upon the diverse academic and professional backgrounds of the class. The iMBA caters to a segment of the population that values mobility, convenience, and believes that online programs better fit their learning styles and life circumstances.
