International Education Administration & Leadership certificate trains professionals to lead, develop, implement and evaluate international programming and internationalization activities in business/industry and education sectors, including postsecondary settings, in both private and public sectors. Students may choose from among the courses listed to specialize in any of the areas of internationalization, and may elect a global education abroad program and/or an internship in order to develop expertise in a particular region or skill set. The institution has a long history of training international education specialists through Global Studies in Education and other related programs. Indeed, the institution itself is renowned for its own international education programming and leads the world in innovation in this field. The Certificate allows students to document specific expertise for employers by highlighting participation in skill building and practitioner focused coursework.

Degree programs in the Department of Education Policy, Organization and Leadership are designed to meet the academic and professional interests of individuals preparing for careers as academic professionals, adult educators, college professors, corporate trainers, educational policy analysts, governmental administrators, instructional designers/technologists, non-profit representatives, organizational development specialists, and university administration leaders.

Admission

The Department of Education Policy, Organization and Leadership carefully considers all applicants for graduate study. Interested applicants should start at <http://education.illinois.edu/programs/grad> (<http://education.illinois.edu/programs/grad/>). The quality of the applicant's undergraduate and graduate training and grade point average are primary considerations. Other important factors evaluated include the three letters of recommendation and statement of purpose. International applicants must submit a TOEFL score.

Off-Campus Programs

The Ed.M., Ed.D., and C.A.S. degree options with Principal Endorsement are offered in the Chicago region. An Ed.D. degree cohort also is available with Superintendent Endorsement. Requirements for the off-campus Ed.M., C.A.S., and Ed.D. programs are identical to the on-campus degrees.

Facilities and Resources

The College of Education also has many resources to assist graduate students through their academic career. The Bureau of Educational Research works with students to secure research funding. The Council on Teacher Education (<http://cote.illinois.edu/>) entitles candidates seeking a Professional Educator License and provides accreditation of professional education programs. Each student completing a degree program is assigned a graduate adviser, who is available to assist the student with planning the program of study and determining degree requirements, courses and timelines for degree completion.

Information on University resources can be found at <http://www.grad.illinois.edu/current-students> (<http://www.grad.illinois.edu/current-students/>).

Financial Aid

Financial aid in the form of assistantships, scholarships, fellowships, and tuition waivers can be found throughout the college (<https://education.illinois.edu/current-students/graduate/financial-aid/>) and campus. Campus opportunities can be found at the Graduate College (<http://www.grad.illinois.edu/funding-jobs/>) and the Office of Student Financial Aid (<http://www.osfa.illinois.edu/>). The College of Education follows all University of Illinois policies regarding graduate student Fellowship, Scholarship and awards.
