Language Requirement: A minimum of two years or equivalent college-level study of a language of the area. For professional work in the region or scholarly research on area topics at least three years of relevant language study are recommended.

Students must also submit a research paper primarily on the region.

Total Hours: 10-12

Other Requirements

Other requirements may overlap.

If students take both LIS 530 abd REES 550, credit for one may be applied to the elective requirement.

A research paper primarily on the region. Normally, this paper would be written in a research seminar course in a disciplinary department. A master’s thesis or doctoral dissertation can be submitted in lieu of the research paper, if it deals primarily with the region. Students are encouraged to present their work in a public forum at the University, such as the REEEC Noontime Scholars lecture series.
