AFRICAN AMERICAN STUDIES CONCENTRATION

for the Graduate Concentration in African American Studies

Those wishing to apply for the concentration must submit three letters of recommendation, as well as a brief personal essay describing their background and career plans and explaining how a concentration in African American Studies enhances their primary program of study. Students must be accepted into the concentration. Students also would be expected to have a faculty member affiliated with the department on their doctoral committee. For admission to the concentration or for more information, please contact DAAS. A student’s intent to pursue a graduate concentration must be approved by the student’s adviser and graduate program director.
