LEARNING OUTCOMES: MATHEMATICS, MS

Learning Outcomes for the Master of Science in Mathematics

1. Students will have a strong understanding of abstract algebra.
2. Students will have a strong understanding of real analysis.
3. Students will gain the ability to engage with theoretical mathematical thinking at the graduate level.
4. Students will gain experience in original research in mathematics, if desired. This goal applies to students on the thesis track of this program.