

AMERICAN INDIAN & INDIGENOUS STUDIES GRADUATE MINOR

Graduate College Admissions & Requirements (<https://grad.illinois.edu/admissions/apply/>)

for the Graduate Minor in American Indian & Indigenous Studies

The American Indian and Indigenous Studies graduate minor is grounded by a strong commitment to the worlds, histories, representations, and political struggles of indigenous peoples internationally, and uses interdisciplinary methods of critical inquiry as a means through which students engage research and scholarship in their major.

Admission

Applicants to the graduate minor must be in good standing in a masters or doctoral program at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Applications must include a statement of purpose that describes how the student's graduate work and/or research interests intersect with American Indian and Indigenous studies. The intent to pursue the graduate minor must be approved by the student's major advisor and graduate program director in their home department.

for the Graduate Minor in American Indian & Indigenous Studies

The student must successfully petition the Graduate College to add the American Indian and Indigenous Studies graduate minor to their academic records and transcripts.

For additional details and requirements refer to the department's program information online (<http://www.ais.illinois.edu/programs/grad/minor/>) and the Graduate College Handbook (<http://www.grad.illinois.edu/gradhandbook/>).
