Compensation Best Practices Certificate Overview:
Develop skills for the negotiation process as the interactive basis for union-management relations; conflict and conflict resolution as part of the negotiating process; wage and other effects of collective bargaining. Learn about hiring, promotion, evaluation, discrimination, raiding, job definition, pay schemes, benefits, and design of work.

The online certificate program consists of a variety of tracks and each track has three courses (12 credit hours total, four credit hours per course). Each course in the certificate program is either six or eight weeks long. You can choose to engage in one or more certificate program tracks. Once you have received one or more certificates, and decide you are interested in the full Master of Human Resources and Industrial Relations (MHRIR) program, you are able to apply for the online master's program.

Each certificate program track takes between 7 to 10 months to complete.

How do I know if the certificate program is for me?

Are you...
- working in HR with no HR background?
- employed by an organization that provides tuition reimbursement, but the reimbursement amount isn't equivalent to a full degree program?
- seeking to gain more knowledge in HR but either unable to or prefer not to attend graduate school?
- currently in HR and seeking to freshen-up your knowledge? This group may include, for example, individuals who started in HR, left HR for different reasons or even left the labor force.
- seeking to enter the HR field or change positions within your organization to HR, but do not want to commit/can't commit to a full degree?
- an individual who wants to know more about HR in general prior to embarking on a full degree program?

If you answered 'yes' to one or more of these questions, then this certificate program may be the perfect fit for you.

What is required to apply for one of these certificate programs?

Please note all applicants must have received a bachelor's degree prior to starting one of our certificate program tracks.

- Application
- Resume
- Official Transcripts
- English Proficiency Exam for international students
- Phone Interview – Contacted after application is reviewed for a phone conversation regarding interest in the certificate program.
