LEARNING OUTCOMES: ANIMAL SCIENCES, BS

Learning outcomes for the degree of Bachelor of Science Major in Animal Sciences

Upon successful completion of a degree in Animal Sciences, students will:

- Demonstrate a mastery of the basic principles of animal genetics, nutrition, reproduction and physiology
- Apply knowledge of animal husbandry, behavior and handling techniques to effectively interact with animals in a safe and humane manner
- Appreciate the breadth of animal sciences in terms of the variety of career paths, the diversity of the animal industries, and the many roles of animals in society
- 4. Communicate effectively, both written and orally, and demonstrate confidence in attaining transferable job or post-graduate skills
- Practice the scientific method in solving 'real-world' problems including collecting and evaluating information, forming predictions, collecting and interpreting data and implementing actions
- Build and sustain productive relationships to create positive change in response to challenging issues with animals and the agriculture industry at the local, national and international levels