Students pursuing this major must select one of two concentrations:

- General Management Concentration (http://catalog.illinois.edu/undergraduate/bus/management-business-bs/general-management)
- International Business Concentration (http://catalog.illinois.edu/undergraduate/bus/management-business-bs/international-business)

The Management Major is designed to prepare business students to be leaders and innovators in analyzing and solving managerial problems that every organization faces in its day-to-day operations. To be effective, managers must be able to design organizations that can compete in complex and volatile business environments and execute their strategies within these organizations. Effective managers also must be ethical leaders and competent decision-makers who formulate goals and long-term plans, build effective teams, and motivate their employees. Students majoring in Management must select one concentration either in General Management or International Business, depending on their career objectives.
