ART AND DESIGN, SCHOOL OF

The School of Art and Design offers bachelor of fine arts degrees in art education, crafts, graphic design, new media, the history of art, industrial design, painting, photography, and sculpture. The first year or "foundation" year is a defined sequence of courses appropriate to all curricula. Specialization begins in the second year.

Courses in the history and appreciation of art and certain courses in studio work are open to students from other colleges of the University. A field of concentration in art history is also offered in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences. The school occupies studios, computing labs, workshops, classrooms, and offices in several different University buildings.

A portfolio review is required both for admission to the foundation year and for placement in any art and design course beyond the foundation level. After completing the foundation year, students must apply for admission to one of the bachelor of fine arts (BFA) degree curricula.
