LEARNING OUTCOMES: METALS CONCENTRATION

Learning outcomes for the Bachelor of Fine Arts Major in Crafts: Metal Concentration

1. the ability to conceive of, design, problem solve, execute, analyze, and critique utilitarian and non-utilitarian objects;
2. the ability to employ and demonstrate technical competency in the making of jewelry, hollowware, and objects using traditional and new approaches in a wide variety of materials;
3. the ability to demonstrate a knowledge of historical and contemporary metalwork practice;
4. the ability to recognize and use jewelry design and metalworking terminology;
5. the ability to apply the elements and principles of two and three-dimensional design to the making of jewelry, hollowware, objects;
6. the ability to create original utilitarian and non-utilitarian objects;
7. the ability to apply critical thinking when analyzing objects;
8. the ability to demonstrate a higher level of perceptual awareness;
9. the ability to demonstrate confidence in and strategies toward individual creativity;
10. the ability to demonstrate a knowledge of safe and effective lab processes.