Students pursuing this major select one of two concentrations:

Creative Concentration (http://catalog.illinois.edu/undergraduate/faa/lyric-theatre-bma/creative/)

Performance Concentration (http://catalog.illinois.edu/undergraduate/faa/lyric-theatre-bma/performance/)

The Bachelor of Musical Arts with a major in Lyric Theatre is an interdisciplinary degree designed for the singer-actor, which incorporates training in dance and theatre in addition to music. This degree requires students to choose one of two Concentrations: Performance (performer) or Creative (director, choreographer, dramaturg, set designer, composer).

The BMA Lyric Theatre curriculum is formed around courses in music, dance, and theatre. Advanced coursework includes a senior project. This degree requires a minimum of 129 semester hours of credit for graduation.
