The minor in art history is designed for students who seek to study art history in depth as a compliment to their major area of study. The minor provides students with an education in art history that is balanced and diverse culturally, temporally, and geographically. It allows students to choose from a variety of introductory courses that cover a variety of regions, cultures, and periods.

Minimum required major and supporting course work: Students must meet the following course requirements for a total of 18 hours

Code	Title	Hours
ARTH 110	Introduction to the History of Art and Visual Culture	3

ARTH courses at the 200, 300 or 400 level (9 credit hours) see footnotes 1,2

ARTH courses at the 300 or 400 level (3 credit hours)

ARTH 400-level designated seminar course (3 credit hours)

Total credits required for Art History Minor: 18

<sup>1</sup> A maximum of one course from other universities will satisfy the requirements for upper-level Art History courses and a maximum of one course from either the History of Architecture or the History of Landscape Architecture at UIUC will count toward the requirements of the Art History Minor.

<sup>2</sup> At least one course must be primarily concerned with a subject outside of Europe and the Modern Americas.
