The Department offers three majors: French, Italian and Teaching of French; two minors: French and Italian; and a 5-year BA/MA in French or Italian and European Union Studies.

The BALAS in French allows students to specialize in one of the following concentrations:

The French Studies concentration focuses on courses in language, literature, culture, film, and linguistics.

The French Commercial Studies concentration combines a focus on French language and culture with appropriate courses in business.

The BALAS in Italian allows students to study Italian language, literature, film, linguistics, and cultural studies.

The B.A. in the Teaching of French prepares students to teach French.

Study Abroad opportunities enhance the undergraduate education in French and Italian.

The minors in French and Italian offer a unique opportunity for students to enhance their education with the study of French or Italian language and culture.

5 Year BALAS/MA in French and European Union Studies allows students to receive two degrees, a BALAS in French and an MA in European Union Studies.

5 Year BALAS/MA in Italian and European Union Studies allows students to receive two degrees, a BALAS in Italian and an MA in European Union Studies.

5 Year BALAS/MA in French or Italian and European Union Studies

The Department of French and Italian with the European Union Center offers a 5-year BALAS/MA degree program in French or Italian and the Master of Arts in European Union Studies (MAEUS). In order to be admitted to this degree program, students apply through a joint application process to their BALAS–granting program and the European Union Center during their third year of studies. Requirements for this degree program are identical to those for the stand-alone BALAS and for the stand-alone MAEUS. Students will receive both degrees when the requirements are met for the degrees; the BALAS and MA degrees will be conferred separately and independently. More detailed information may be obtained from department and EUC offices.
