

ASIAN AMERICAN STUDIES INTERDISCIPLINARY MINOR

for the Interdisciplinary Minor in Asian American Studies department page: Department of Asian American Studies (<http://catalog.illinois.edu/schools/las/academic-units/asian-american-studies>) department website: <https://www.aas.illinois.edu/>

department faculty: Classics Faculty (<https://aas.illinois.edu/directory/faculty>) overview of college admissions & requirements: Liberal Arts & Sciences (<http://catalog.illinois.edu/las>) college website: <https://las.illinois.edu/>

email: aas@illinois.edu

The Asian American Studies Department offers a campus-wide Interdisciplinary Minor. This minor represents a coherent program for students who wish to deepen their study of Asian American histories, experiences, contemporary issues and social problems as a part of their liberal education and understanding of race and diversity in the United States and transnationally. It is relevant to curricula such as letters and sciences, business, economics, education, health studies, pre-law, social work, or urban and regional planning.

Code	Title	Hours
AAS 100	Intro Asian American Studies	3
Asian American Studies Core Coursework
AAS 200	U.S. Race and Empire	3
AAS 215	US Citizenship Comparatively	3
AAS 300	Theories of Race, Gender, and Sexuality	3
Approved Electives		6
Students complete 6 hours of AAS coursework (a minimum of 3 hours must be at the 300- or 400-level)
Total Hours		18