Linguistics Minor

for the Minor in Linguistics

The Linguistics Minor is designed for students who seek a basic familiarity with the field and is especially suited for students with majors in foreign language and other language-related fields such as anthropology, computer science, English, psychology, communication, and for anyone interested in the nature of language.

For advising information please visit the Linguistics advising page.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Code</th>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Hours</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>LING 100</td>
<td>Intro to Language Science</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Select two of the following:

- LING 301 Elements of Syntax
- LING 302 Elements of Phonology
- LING 307 Elements Semantics & Pragmatics

Nine additional hours of linguistics courses, including at least six hours chosen from the following:

- LING 301 Elements of Syntax (if not chosen for the second requirement above)
- LING 302 Elements of Phonology (if not chosen for the second requirement above)
- LING 307 Elements Semantics & Pragmatics (if not chosen for the second requirement above)
- LING 210 Language History
- LING 225 Language, Mind, and Brain
- LING 250 Language Diversity in the USA
- LING 400 Intro to Linguistic Structure
- LING 401 Intro to General Phonetics
- LING 406 Intro to Computational Ling

Information listed in this catalog is current as of 04/2019